APRIL 2016

Under the Bell Tower

Dear Friends,

As I drove to church this morning the news was bleak. Dozens killed and injured in bomb explosions at the Brussels Airport and a metro station. 500 shootings in Chicago since the first of the year. And Ron's mother just passed away the day before yesterday (March 20). It's the Tuesday of Holy Week and I'm preaching on Maundy Thursday, we're participating in the Ecumenical Services and Cross Walk on Good Friday, so there's several days of anxiety, death and mourning to go until we rejoice together at the news of Resurrection.

If anything, I realize today how important it is to pause our daily routines to be sad, to grieve, to ask, "Why?" at times like this, to lift up to God our anger and anguish and grief. And then, to listen. Perhaps if those who are spreading hate and violence in the world had stopped to cry out to God not for revenge, but for comfort, this cycle of hatred and violence we're trapped in would cease. It's worth a try, because what we're doing now is not the solution. And as the prophet Isaiah promises, God makes a way in the wilderness where there was no way before, and sends rivers through the desert. What seems impossible for us is possible when we proceed hand in hand with God.

Long before the event of Jesus the Christ, God was always up to something new and resurrection has been on the divine agenda. Whether freeing slaves in Egypt, returning captives from Babylon, then interrupting the ways of the world with the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, God is on the move, instigating hope, and yearning for us to notice God's next new thing and join in rather than stay stuck in the past. For only God's ways can heal this wounded world. Only by God doing something new can Resurrection happen.

I hope as you're reading this it's a bright fresh new day and all seems right in the world. Even if that's not the case, know that in every death is the possibility of Resurrection.

May the fresh breath of the Spirit give you New Life today and always.

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Ellen

BOARD OF DIACONATE

"Hey! Are you plugged in to the internet at home? Well Peoples Church has not only had a great website for years: peopleschurchofdover.org (maintained religiously by Elinor Baker), it now has its own Face Book (FB) and YouTube page (administered fastidiously by Sally Childears). All three sites have a trove of useful information about People's and with FB, members can interact instantaneously. And if you happen to miss church because you are busy squishing beach sand between your toes? Videos of the Sunday sermons are now being posted on the FB page and UTube. So come join the congregation online. Post a photo or comment of interest to your fellow members, post a prayer or word of praise to the Lord, or just come and see what everyone else is up to. The Diaconate"

Our Church's Website

Have you looked at our church's website lately? www.peopleschurchofdover.org Special thanks to Elinor Baker for all the work she puts into her job as our webmaster.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Thank you to everyone that helped with the Easter Egg Hunt, including our Easter Bunny!

Sunday School for children ages 3-12 are held from 11:15-noon every Sunday unless otherwise announced. Parents/grandparents/guardians are encouraged to come to service with their child(ren). We have activity packs available and there is a special "Time with Young Disciples" during service each week. The nursery will be open for those who need it during service and there is usually coffee, light snacks and adult conversation after service in the fellowship room while you wait for class to finish. We have a great curriculum and are eager to share it with the youth of People's Church and the community around us. Please consider having your child participate each week.

If you have or know a teenager interested in Christian Education, please contact Jennifer Childears for the schedule.

If you have any questions or concerns, please reach out to Jennifer Childears, via email jenniferchildears@yahoo.com or by text at 302-535-2988.

All are invited to join us March 27 for our annual Easter Egg Hunt following service. It is always a good time watching the children gather eggs and react to the Easter Bunny. Please bring a basket for your child(ren) to gather eggs.
